OXFORDSHIRE ARCHITECTURAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The society, formed in 1972 by the amalgamation of the Oxford Architectural and Historical Society (founded in 1839) and the Oxfordshire Archaeological Society (founded in 1852), exists to further the study of the archaeology, topography, architecture, and history of Oxford and Oxfordshire. In addition to publishing Oxoniensia, it provides a programme of winter lectures in Oxford and organizes excursions to places of architectural, historical, and archaeological interest. Through its Listed Buildings Committee and associated Victorian Group, the society makes representations to public bodies, both on its own behalf and for the Council for British Archaeology, to safeguard historical buildings and monuments. The society also convenes the Oxford City and County Archaeological Forum, which fosters liaison to discuss and advise on issues concerning archaeology and museums, monitor cases and on occasion make representations on matters of concern.

The society's website can be found at www.oahs.org.uk. In 2010 OAHs launched two new initiatives to promote digital access to studying Oxfordshire's past: past volumes of Oxoniensia are now available online (the last five years only to members) at <http://oxoniensia.org> and the OAHs online guide to resources and societies for studying Oxfordshire's past is to be found at <http://oxfordshirehistory.modhist.ox.ac.uk>.

Subscriptions (£12 individual, £17 family membership) should be sent to the Membership Secretary, 15 Harding Way, Marcham, Abingdon, OX13 6FJ, who will be pleased to supply further information about the society.

THE GREENING LAMBORN TRUST

The Greening Lamborn Trust's objective is to promote public interest in the history, architecture, old photographs and heraldry of Oxford and its neighbourhood by supporting publications and other media that create access to them. It supports scholarly works and smaller publications of local interest. The trustees make grants, and occasionally loans, to help with publication costs and expenditure on the display to the public of historic artefacts in local museums and industrial heritage sites. Whilst the trustees cannot support research costs, they can help with the expense of publishing the research when the publication will be available for general purchase. Sometimes the trustees will meet the cost of including additional illustrations, historic photographs etc. which would otherwise be omitted. Further information can be obtained from clerk.greeninglamborn@hmg-law.co.uk.

OXFORDSHIRE RECORD SOCIETY

Founded in 1919, the Oxfordshire Record Society publishes transcripts, abstracts and lists of the primary sources for the history of Oxfordshire. It also works to stimulate interest in county's archives. The annual subscription, which remains only £12, supports the society's work and entitles members to receive a copy of each volume published during the particular membership year. Members are also entitled to attend the AGM, usually held in an Oxford college or other historic building.

Recent volumes issued by the society include:

The Life and Times of a Charlbury Quaker, ed. Hannah Jones;
Wood's Radley College Diary 1855–1861, ed. Mark Spurrell;

Applications for membership should be sent to Paul Gaskell, 28 Bulan Road, Headington, Oxford, OX3 7HT (oxfordshirerecordsociety@gmail.com). New members receive a volume of their choice from those still in print. Further information can be obtained from www.oxfordshire-record-society.org.uk

OXFORDSHIRE LOCAL HISTORY ASSOCIATION

The association was founded in 1980 to further the study of local history in the county, and in particular to promote links between amateur local historians and academic and professional bodies involved in local history. The association organizes twice-yearly study days and publishes a monthly e-bulletin and a journal, Oxfordshire Local History. Further details at: www.olha.org.uk
